Venice, May 11. N. S.

ON the 6th, Monſignor Aldobrandini, the Pope's Nuncio, made his publick Entry here with great Magnificence. He was met at St. Spirito by Signor Moroſini, accompanied by Sixty Senators in their Scarlet Robes, Fourteen Biſhops, and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction. The next Day he was Conducted, with the uſual Ceremonies, from the Palace of the Nunciatura to the College, where he had his firſt Audience; after which he returned home with the ſame Solemnity. Yeſterday being Aſcenſion-Day, the Vice-Doge, by reaſon of an Indiſpoſition of the Doge, went on board the Bucentoro, and performed the Function of Marrying the Sea; at which the new Nuncio, together with the Regency, aſſiſted. A ſevere Decree has been lately publiſh'd here againſt the Exceſſes of Luxury. The Magiſtrate of Health has again diminiſh'd the Quarentine, and in a ſhort time all the Paſſages will be opened into the Territories of this State. Prince Ercolani, the Emperor's Ambaſſador, is returned here from Bologna, and intends to ſet out in a few Days for Vienna. They write from Rome, that the Earl of Peterborough was gone through that Place in his way to Florence. Letters from Naples bring an Account, that the St. Gennaro and the Santa Barbara Men of War, which had convoy'd the Tartanes with the Spaniſh Soldiers on Board to Fiume, were returned from thence, and had brought back a large Quantity of Timber and other Materials for the Building of Ships.

Madrid, May 14. N. S. The King has granted Count Albert, Envoy Extraordinary of the Elector of Bavaria, the Privilege of entring into his Chamber. His Majeſty has conſtituted Don Joſeph Terran and Monjaras, one of his Gentlemen, in conſideration of his Services. The Marquis de Brancas has ſent Orders from Paris to have his Houſe and Family here diſcharged; and it is ſaid, the Moſt Chriſtian King will very ſoon name another Ambaſſador to this Court. The 17th is appointed for celebrating the Funeral of the Queen, and it is thought his Majeſty ſoon after will remove to Pardo. Two Days ago we receiv'd an Expreſs with an account, that on the 30th paſt, Monſieur Orry arrived at the Camp before Barcelona, and that Don Feliciano de Bracamonte had defeated a Party of Miquelets commanded by the Marquis del Pual, and had taken ſeveral Priſoners. Brigadier Solis had been in purſuit of another Body in the Plains of Tarragona, and had obliged them to retire for Refuge to the Mountains of Montblanc. We have receiv'd an account, that the Alcaide Hali, who had commanded above 15 Years at the Siege of Ceuta, was dead, and that the Emperor of Morocco had ſent one of his Sons in his Place, with a conſiderable Supply of Men and Ammunition. Upon this advice, a Reinforcement of Troops, and a great Quantity of all ſorts of Proviſions neceſſary for a vigorous Defence, have been ſent thither from Andaluſia.

Berlin, May 19. N. S. Yeſterday the King came hither from Potſdam, and reviewed the Regiment of Wartenſleben in the Park. His Majeſty intends in like manner to review the reſt of the Forces quarter'd in the Neighbourhood of this Place, before he ſets out for Madgebourg, which will be towards the end of this Month. The Inhabitants of this City have complained that great Numbers of People have been frightned away by the violent manner of raiſing Troops, and are withdrawn into other Countries, to the great decay of Trade: Whereupon his Majeſty has order'd a Declaration to be read in the Churches to Morrow, that for the future no Perſon ſhall be Preſs'd into the Service. Monſieur Girardi, an Agent of the Duke of Saxe-Weymar, having endeavour'd to perſuade ſeveral Manufacturers to remove from hence into the Duke his Maſter's Dominions, the King has ſent him Orders to leave this Country within four Days.

Hamburgh, May 22. N. S. The King of Denmark is expected very ſoon in Holſtein. His Majeſty has Summoned the Swediſh Officers, who were taken Priſoners with Count Steinbock, to appear within a Month at the Places where they had been in Confinement, before they were releaſed upon their Parole. They write from Copenhagen, that Sixteen Men of War were ready to ſet ſail from thence upon the firſt Order. We are informed that the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel is arrived at Leipſick, where he has been ſeveral times in Conference with King Auguſtus, upon ſome Affairs that are to be treated of at the Congreſs of Brunſwick. The Emperor not being pleaſed with the Reſervations in the full Powers which had been ſent him, to conclude a general Peace at Baden, in the Name of the whole Empire, the Diet of Ausbourg hath ſince altered them in the manner his Imperial Majeſty deſired, and the Miniſters of the ſeveral Princes have given him an account in Writing of the Pretenſions of their reſpective Maſters. It is ſaid, the King of Pruſſia is in Treaty with the Duke of Courland, for the Succeſſion to his Dominions, in caſe the Duke, who is yet unmarried, ſhould happen to Die without Iſſue. The Czar has refuſed to agree to a Truce with the Swedes. Letters from Demotica, of the 10th paſt, bring an Account, that General Lieven was upon his return to this Place, and that the King of Sweden his Maſter would likewiſe leave the Ottoman Empire in a few Days.

Hanover, May 23. N. S. Monſieur Schleinitz, Envoy of Muſcovy at this Court, is appointed by the Czar to be his Second Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs of Brunſwick. On the 17th Inſtant, the Imperial Regiment of Dragoons that was Quartered in the Dioceſe of Hildeſheim, began their March towards Newick near Coblentz. Monſieur de Friſendorf, who reſided formerly at this Place with the Character of Envoy of the King of Sweden, arrived here a few Days ago from Berlin, and to Morrow he intends to ſet out for Brunſwick. We are informed that Count Welling, who was Governor of Bremen, and retired to Hamburgh when the Danes took Poſſeſſion of that Dutchy, has received full Powers from the King of Sweden to enter upon a Treaty of Peace with the Allies of the North. They write from Breſlaw, that the Poliſh Generals who arrived there ſome time ago from Turky, in order to make their Submiſſions to King Auguſtus, had put off their departure to Dreſden, upon account of the Uncertainty of the Affairs of Poland, where the Nobility make
